We are pleased to present you with your copy of the collective bargaining agreement that will be in effect through June 30, 2011. It is the end result of countless hours of research, preparation and face to face negotiations on behalf of the 1400+ members of the bargaining unit in the five component groups we represent. We urge you to read the contract carefully to be fully aware of the rights and responsibilities it presents. You will notice that the Agreement begins with Section 1, the terms and conditions that apply to all unit employees. Sections 2 through 6 apply specifically and exclusively to the identified component groups, addressing terms and conditions for certificated staff (2), custodial personnel (3), secretarial staff (4), school-related personnel (5) and paraprofessionals (6).

We are very grateful to our activists who served as members of the at-large bargaining council and those elected to participate in talks at the bargaining table. Over the course of seven months of negotiations, beginning on March 19 and concluding on August 27, your colleagues sacrificed hour after hour of personal time, committing themselves totally toward reaching an agreement that served your needs and interests. They deserve thanks and respect from all who will benefit from their good work. A good team is usually the result of good coaching. We want to salute our "coaching staff" partners, Judy Davis, Gary Blomquist and AFT Counsel Brian Adams for their efforts to secure an agreement that enjoyed overwhelming support.

It takes two to tango or to negotiate a new contract. We want to acknowledge the efforts of Board Members Ken Gonzalez, Steve Jobin and Central Administrators Bill Stratton, Derek Jess and Jack Rodecker and Board Counsel Phil Stern. These negotiations, though long, difficult and occasionally testy, brought together people of good faith seeking fair and progressive resolutions in a challenging fiscal climate.

As we write to you today, preparations for a successor agreement are already beginning. We invite you to offer your thoughts on the next contract and to think about participating in the process. New ideas and new perspectives are always welcomed. Every contract can be improved upon; our continuing goal is rooted in that pursuit.
